Join self-styled 'Urban Explorer', travel writer, historian and photographer Duncan J. D. Smith on a fascinating and idiosyncratic journey through Vienna's hidden First District.

Recorded 'live' this unique tour offers adventure, history, and excitement, and is based on the bestselling guidebook Only in Vienna: A Guide to Hidden Corners, Little-Known Places and Unusual Objects (Christian Brandstätter Verlag).

Including twenty unusual locations guaranteeing a sense of discovery and a memorable experience.

- Discover Harry Lime's doorway and Napoleon's magnificent mosaic
- Enter secret courtyards and descend into medieval wine cellars
- Uncover Roman ruins and Turkish cannonballs
- Experience the secret world of the knights of Blood Street
- Reveal the ghostly traces of a medieval synagogue
- Unravel the mysteries of the Stephansdom

Press review (Florian Mueller, Journalist):

"The concept is brilliant. There were plenty of stories that I didn't know before. I like it that a lot of historical facts are introduced without ever being boring. The background sounds are also a very good idea, so that the tour can be fully experienced at home, too."
